PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The 1967-68 Parent-Teachers Association sponsored many activities this year for the benefit of Van Horn students. The annual book fair gave students a chance to select a variety of books. Chaperoning games, dances, and Senior Night and serving refreshments for the faculty and Philharmonic Orchestra, during their yearly concert, the P-TA serves for a better relationship between school and home.

FALCON STAFF

The year is made full of fun through Falcon with overwrought meals and warm fingers. We have had our share of cokes, our share of fun, and our share of work but most of all we share the pride of a great yearbook. Our mission is to recreate the excitement of the sports over the years, the quiet of the diaries, the laughter heard each day throughout the halls, and all the little things which have made up the 68 year at Van Horn.

Trade and Industry Distributive Education Classes are geared to those students who wish to gain training in vocations related to trade and industry. This year's program is similar to previous C.O.E. programs with more emphasis on certain fields of occupational training. Students enrolled in this program spend part of their day at Van Horn taking regular classes while the remainder of their day is spent at their respective places of employment acquiring valuable on-the-job training.

THOROUGHLY MODERN VANTASIA '67

Vantasia '67 went "Thoroughly Modern" on October 20-21. In keeping with the theme were the traditional dance lines and the various talents displayed in the annual all-school variety show. The Concert Choir and Glee Club sang a medley of songs. Pic throwing, comedy skits and commercials performed by Masters of Ceremonies, Janina Youngblood, Diana Watts, Ed Brown, and Bob Campbell also added to the crowd's entertainment on both nights of the performance.

EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL

This year's Fall Play, presented by the Van Horn Drama Department, was John Patrick's "Everybody Loves Opal." The comedy evolves around a ragged little old lady, Opal, who lives in a tattered house on the edge of a dump. Opal refuses to believe that there could be evil in anyone, even after her three "friends" make an attempt to murder her. The proceeds from the play went to the American Field Service to aid the foreign exchange student program.

THE CRUCIBLE

"The Crucible", this year's spring play, was one of Arthur Miller's more penetrating dramas concerning the Salem witch trials of the late 1600's. The play reveals how a group of young girls, who are discovered doing a heathen dance in the forest, arouse the entire community by accusing several of their fellow citizens of performing witchcraft. Eventually all the citizens of Salem become involved in the emotion-filled witch trials that follow. This year's production of "The Crucible" was a glaring exposition of how evil can destroy the very best in society when ignorance and superstition are allowed to prevail.

AMERICANS ABROAD

Americans Abroad is a summer program sponsored by the AFS to send American students to foreign lands. In 1967 John Adams was Van Horn's representative to Peru. Candidates from Van Horn for 1968 are Karen Mertell, and Laurie Bush (not pictured).

Valeria Gianni, Italy

Dear Falcons,

When first I came I never thought I could have met so many of you! Do you remember the party that the AFS gave in August, so that you could meet me and I you? It really flattered me to see how many of you came! But I still didn't know most of you. With the school a better acquaintance came too, and now I feel like I know you all, even if I didn't make friends with everybody. I tried to get a general idea of what young American people are like and the idea I got is positive. I will always remember all the people who helped me when I had some difficulties (as when I was going to drop physics because I couldn't even understand what they were talking about), and all the people who just tried to make me feel at home — all of you. And how could I forget our football and basketball games and the coronations of all our queens? I wish I could return something to you, but the only thing I can do is to wish for you to have in your lives at least one year as wonderful as the one I lived at Van Horn.

Forever yours,

Valeria

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE STUDENTS, 1967-68

The time has passed away so quickly that I could hardly believe this wonderful year is almost over. It seems to me like yesterday when I came to Van Horn.

It's been so much fun to be an AFS student at Van Horn. I enjoyed every day of my school life and my stay here in Independence. When I go back home in July I'll be carrying my memories of a real cool year with me. I'll always remember Van Horn as a very nice school where I found education and fun together. I'll also remember all the friendly people that made my stay in the U.S. much more enjoyable.

If by any chance anyone of you come to Turkey, I would be delighted to see you and recall my past memories at Van Horn.

Best wishes,

Reha

The Van Horn Varsity Football Squad started out with good perspective, winning all three non-league games. In league competition, Van Horn won four games and lost three in spite of the tough fight put up by the Falcons. They closed out the season in winning style with a 26-12 victory over Southeast which kept the Knights from capturing the league title and put Van Horn in fifth place. Coaches Herb McCoy and Joe Klein worked hard to mold the squad into a winning team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

SCORES

Although Van Horn's basketball team was usually on the short end of the score this year, the Falcon eagles displayed hustle, spirit, and agility in every game. The Christmas vacation proved beneficial for the Falcons as they defeated St. Mary's and Blue Springs and captured the third place trophy at the William Chrisman tournament during the joyous week. After posting a 2-17 overall record and a 0-9 league mark, the Falcons went into the regional tournament at Truman where they sandwiched victories over East and Fort Osage around a loss to Truman to take third place.

A black and white photograph of a large group of male track athletes. They are arranged in several rows, with some standing in the back and others kneeling or sitting in the front. They are posed in front of a large, dark building with a prominent entrance on the right side. The image is somewhat faded and has a vintage feel.

During enthusiastic games and spirit-filled pep assemblies, the Varsity Cheerleaders lead their fans in cheers and chants. With the help of the spirit stick, which was won for the first time this year at camp, the crowds responded with their overwhelming support. This year's squad received first place ribbons during the five nights of competition and took the Grand Champs Trophy in the final competition at the Jonesboro camp.
